Post Offer Medical Examination and History
If a tentative offer of employment as a seaman is made, you will be required to provide a full medical history and will be examined by an EMI designated physician. Employment is conditional on a determination by the examiner that you are fit for duty as a seaman and are able to perform the requirements of the job for which you were offered in addition to duties on deck. USCG list of physical requirements, Medical History, and post offer drug screening forms will be provided to you if you receive a tentative offer of employment from Express Marine.
Applicant Verification
I certify by my signature, that all of the above information is correct and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and grant Express Marine permission to make background checks and verify License, Merchant Mariner Document, and Driver License. I acknowledge that any intentional omissions and/or falsifications by me will render this application invalid and may be grounds for termination if I become employed by Express Marine, Inc.
